K-LOVE provides my community with positive programming, news, comment and music that is different from any other station in our area. No one else plays the truly good Christian music and gives news and comments they provide. Many news stories are very unique, never seen or heard of elsewhere. This gives a positive effect on our community. We truely need the unique information that this station provides for us.